2013 Creative Options Summary by Roberta B.

On October 7th, 2013 we had thirty-three self-advocates at the Creative Options Conference. I was on the Planning Committee and I had a certain duty to do that day-welcome people and let them know where registration for the conference was. We did one presentation: the Anti-Bullying one and I also did a presentation with two staff from Opportunity Partners on apps for the iPad. I truly did feel like I could have been more involved with the second session that I did that day. This was a somber day as it was Vicki's final Creative Options Conference because her last day at Lifeworks will be October 18th as she has a job with the healthcare industry. There is possibility that there could be a Creative Options Conference for Self-Advocates and I'll keep you posted if this does happen.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN HELPING WITH THE QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER , MIRACLE ?

Roberta B. & Katie M. are looking for self-advocates who are interested in helping with editing and conducting interviews, taking pictures, etc. for the Miracle news letter. If you are interested in being on the committee please contact either Katie or Roberta. This is a fun and exciting way to get to know other people and make new friends.

We also have sign up sheets in the commons area and on the work floor.

A wonderful visit with the Special Olympics Russia Delegation

By Roberta B., Self-Advocate Mentor

On August 15th, I had the honor of meeting with Nadeza Bannikova and Zoya Berdnikova, who were the members of the Special Olympics Russia Delegation. Mike Greenbaum, a staff person from Merrick joined me for this meeting and a tour of the main site. They were impressed by how organized Merrick is and it was a shock for one of them. I was also told by one of the delegation members "You're a star!" They also were going to all three of the sites where horseback riding, bocce ball, softball and golf would be during that weekend as part of the Special Olympics Minnesota Fall Games. Since I'm also a Special Olympics Minnesota Athlete, I did let them know what time I would be competing on August 18th for the State Golf Tournament at Oak Marsh Golf Course in Oakdale. I did have information ready to go on Anti-Bullying, Assistive Technology and Self-Advocacy and did let them know that the information is in English, so they may need to have a translator present when they watch it and read it. They are looking for volunteers for Special Olympics Russia and suggested to me that I do come out.

- Special Olympics-a global movement (sports and other things) for people with all types of Intellectual Disabilities, which is celebrating 45 years this year.
- Russia-a country (Sochi, one of their cities will be the host city for the 2014 Winter Olympics).

Client Awards Ceremonies By: Katie M. Peer Mentor

The Merrick client service award ceremonies were held on August 8, 2013 and August 15, 2013. Once again both days were a huge success. Simplicity and excellent volunteers were the key. We had over 250 people in attendance who were full of energy and all wearing smiles. Tu Y. was even dressed in a full tuxedo complete with bowtie and like the other recipients very proud of his accomplishments. Several clients commented at the podium thanking their staff at Merrick, complimenting their van drivers and honoring their families for the support over the years in all aspects of their lives.

Katie C. with her 10-year award

Our host, Colleen once again did a completely fabulous job of providing the opening commentary and enthusiastically describing the gifts and talents that each one of the recipients bring to our lives. Her presentations are captivating and priceless for the clients and their families. It was the highlight of the year for many clients. It was great to see several Merrick and Newtrax staff attend and show their support. Patti M. received an award for being a part of Merrick for forty-five years. Congrats Patti! People don't always remember what you say, but they will always remember how you made them feel. Many clients commented that at Merrick they feel loved, important and cared about.
